GENERAL INFORMATION.

The studies of the Regular Course will occupy three years. A critical examination of the classes will occur when the studies are completed, or at the close of the term.

Only those students whose general deportment and recitations have been satisfactory, and whose examinations are creditable, will be promoted.

Diplomas and gold medals will be awarded those who have completed the prescribed course of study.

Students wishing to enter advanced classes can be examined the day before the school term opens, or, if more convenient to themselves during the term.

Those wishing to spend only a single session, can pursue their studies with such classes as they are prepared to enter.

Elementary drawing will be a part of the regular course, and students will be expected to give attention to this exercise, unless specially excused.

LOCATION AND BUILDINGS.

Lewisburg is geographically near the centre of the State, on the west side of the West Branch of the Susquehanna, also on the line of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, and the Lewisburg Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad. It is located in one of the richest and most highly cultivated valleys in the State, noted for the beauty of its scenery and salubrity of its climate.

The grounds of the Institute are ample, comprising six acres of beautiful woodland, affording facilities for outdoor sports and recreations.

The building is warmed by furnaces, lighted with gas, thoroughly ventilated, and will accommodate ninety boarders. All the rooms occupied by the pupils are neatly furnished.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two literary societies connected with the Institute, comprising such young ladies as may choose to join. The members have access to a well selected library.

The Alumnæ Association holds its anniversary during Commencement week.

GENERAL CULTURE.

The character of each recitation is recorded at the time, and the result, together with a statement of the general industry and deportment of the student, is sent to the the parent or guardian at the close of each term.

Special attention is given to the religious training of the young ladies, and every effort is made to surround them with the influences of a pleasant christian home.

All are required to attend daily prayers. Social religious meetings are held every Tuesday, for such as choose to attend. On Wednesday all the members of the Institution receive Bible instruction.

On the Sabbath, students attend public worship and Bible class with their teachers. They are, however, permitted, on the request of a parent or guardian; to attend morning service at any of the other places of public worship in town.

Calls or visits are not allowed on the Sabbath.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

Effort is constantly made to combine mental culture and physical exercise, and thus harmoniously develop all the powers of mind and body.

The health of pupils is regarded as of first importance, and will never be sacrificed to intellectual attainments.

For the healthful development of the physical system, a commodious gymnasium has been provided and furnished with requisite apparatus for light gymnastics.

Daily exercise in the open air is also required, when the weather will permit.

GOVERNMENT.

The Principal and Assistant Teachers will ever exercise a watchful care over the morals and health of the students; governing the school by appealing to their better feelings and higher principles—a mode of discipline which has thus far been found entirely successful.

Authority, however, will be maintained, and the requirements made most certainly enforced.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a courteous and lady-like manner, both in their intercourse with each other and with their instructors.

The design of the school is not to make money, but to afford an education to those who desire it. Students who do not conform to the laws, and give themselves to study, will be dismissed.

When a student has been placed in the Institution its laws must prevail, and parents are not expected to interfere by calling their daughters away, or directing their movements during term time.

ABSTRACT OF LAWS.

1. Each student is required to engage in such number of studies as may, in the judgment of the Principal be sufficient to occupy her whole time.

2. Students from a distance must reside in the Institute.

3. No student can leave the Institute grounds, at any time, without permission from the principal.

4. No student is allowed to contract any debt whatever without the knowledge and consent of the Principal.

5. Students from a distance are not permitted to visit their homes, nor leave the Institution during the current session to visit with friends and relatives in the town, unless for reasons very satisfactory.

6. None but near relations, or friends from a distance are allowed to visit the students, and such visits must be so arranged as not to interfere with the regular study and recitation hours.

7. Teachers and students take their meals at the same table, and both are expected to be punctual and exact in the discharge of every duty. An extra charge will be made for all meals sent to rooms.

8. Patrons visiting the young ladies at the Seminary may be accommodated with board at fifty cents a day, if there are vacant rooms. In no case will students be required to give up their rooms for visitors.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The year is divided into two terms. The second term of the present year will close on Wednesday, June 30th.

The first term of 1875-6 will commence on Thursday, September 9th, and continue to December 23.

The second term of 1876 will commence January 11th, and continue to June 28th.

Punctuality is required in every department of duty. An absence from the first recitation of a term is just as influential in a student's record as any subsequent absence.

The loss of a single lesson, or of the evening or morning study hour, may be felt for weeks. An imperfect recitation often leads to a succession of similar ones; one absence prepares the way for another; finally, the student becomes discouraged, and abandons all effort.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Each student should be provided with an umbrella, overshoes, gymnastic dress, table napkins, towels, and a teaspoon for use in her room. Every article of clothing must be marked with the owner's name in full. Parents and Guardians are particularly requested to refrain, not only from furnishing their daughters and wards with the means of procuring cakes and confectioneries, but from sending boxes containing such articles.

It is especially desired that the dress of the students shall be simple and inexpensive. Simplicity saves time, thought and money to a scholar, valuable for nobler purposes than mere personal adornment.

Whenever practicable, the wardrobe of the young ladies should be prepared at home, to avoid the necessity of frequent visits to town.

Students will be held responsible for damages done to the rooms they may occupy.

No room will be reserved for a student unless definitely engaged.
